Lov'st thou to listen to music's sweet voice?
Oh, come to the woods where the song birds rejoice;
Or would'st thou be free? to the forest repair,
The stag in his freedom bounds merrily there
When summer is gone and the winter chill hours
Have rifled the green wood and blighted the flow'rs,
Tho' ice bound the brook and snow cover'd the dale.
The proudest might sigh for our home in the vale:
Then give me a cot &c.
